

Rev. Phil McClelland, MDiv, MA, LPCC, NCC

Rev. Phil McClelland is a dedicated pastor and licensed professional counselor with nearly two decades of service in the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod (LCMS).

He earned his undergraduate degree in Lutheran Confessions and Christian Outreach from Concordia University, St. Paul, MN, and completed his Master of Divinity at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, in 2008. Pastor McClelland has faithfully served both sole pastorates and multi-staff ministries in Galloway, NJ, and Youngstown, OH. He currently serves in a dual-parish ministry at Hosanna Lutheran and Faith Walk Lutheran in Columbia Station, OH, at The Ministry Center.

In addition, Pastor McClelland holds a master's degree in professional counseling from Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA. He is an independently licensed professional clinical counselor (LPCC) in Ohio and Missouri, a National Certified Counselor (NCC), and a Clinical Trauma Professional.

He is the Founder and CEO of My Integrity Counseling, an online multi-state counseling platform known for its faith-based integrity and heartfelt service. He is also Co-Founder and CEO of My VIDA Recovery in San Antonio, TX, which provides substance abuse counseling and outpatient services throughout Texas.

Pastor McClelland serves as an adjunct professor at Davenport University in Michigan, where he teaches Law and Ethics, Group Counseling, and Practicum courses. He also mentors graduate students and serves on the Advisory Board for the university's Mental Health Counseling Program.

Within the LCMS, he has served as a District Reconciler and as a Care Partner for the Ohio and SELC districts, offering conflict resolution and pastoral care to congregations. His counseling work specializes in complex trauma, mood disorders, anxiety symptoms, and clergy-specific issues.

Pastor McClelland is blessed with a loving family, including his beautiful wife Shiloh, a trained DCE and medical billing specialist, and their teenage children—Philip, who is pursuing a career in engineering, and Emerald, a lacrosse athlete considering a future in veterinary medicine. The McClelland family shares a home with Pastor's mother, Sharon, who has celebrated over 50 years as a registered nurse and continues to bless Cleveland-area congregations with her gift for ecclesiastical organ music.

To contact Pastor McClelland or learn more about the services he provides:

🌐 www.faithfullyanxious.com

🌐 www.myintegritycounseling.com

✉ Email: phil@myintegritycounseling.com

📞 Text: 330-992-4583

